Programs: Americans with Disabilities Act and Title IX

POLICY STATEMENT ON DISABILITY AND TITLE IX

It is the policy of K-State Research and Extension to conduct business in a manner that ensures equal access and opportunity in all aspects of programs, activities, and employment decisions without regard to sex or disability to the full extent of the State and Federal laws, policies, and regulations.

- I. Employees of K-State Research and Extension in providing aid, benefit, or service shall not, on the basis of sex:
 1. treat one person differently from another in meeting any requirement or condition for such aid, benefit, or service;
 2. provide different aid, benefit, or service or provide them in a different manner;
 3. discriminate against any person in the application of any rules of appearance, behavior, sanctions, or other treatment;
 4. aid or perpetuate discrimination against any person by providing significant assistance to any agency, organization or person which discriminates;
 5. otherwise limit any person in the enjoyment of any right, privilege, advantage, or opportunity.
- II. Employees of K-State Research and Extension in applying any program criterion or requirement shall not, on the basis of sex:
 1. give preference to one person over another, by ranking persons separately, or otherwise;
 2. apply numerical limitations upon the number or proportion of persons of either sex;
 3. otherwise treat one individual differently from another;
 4. operate any test or other criterion which has a disproportionately adverse effect on persons on the basis of sex unless the test or criterion is shown to predict validly;
 5. apply any rule concerning the actual or potential parental, family or marital status of a participant which treats persons differently on the basis of sex;
 6. discriminate against or exclude any person on the basis of pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or recovery therefrom;
 7. treat disability related to pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or recovery therefrom differently from any other temporary disability or physical condition;
 8. make pre-admission inquiry of marital status of an applicant including whether the applicant is "Miss", "Ms." or "Mrs."; unless any inquiry as to the marital status of an applicant is made equally to applicants of both sexes and is not used for discriminatory purposes.
- III. Employees of K-State Research and Extension in providing aid, benefit, or service may not, directly or indirectly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements:

1. deny a qualified disabled person opportunity to participate in or benefit from aid, benefit, or service;
2. afford a qualified disabled person an opportunity to participate in or benefit from aid, benefit, or service not equal to that afforded others;
3. provide a qualified disabled person with an aid, benefit, or service not as effective as that provided to others;
4. provide different or separate aid, benefits, or services to disabled persons unless such action is necessary;
5. deny a qualified disabled person opportunity to participate as a member of planning or advisory boards;
6. limit a qualified disabled person opportunity to participate as a member of planning or advisory boards;
