

PRESERVE IT FRESH, PRESERVE IT SAFE

June 12, 2019

9:00am-4:00pm

First United Methodist Church in Eureka
CLASS IS LIMITED TO 20

REGISTRATION FEE: $30

Fee is due at registration.
Fee includes supplies and lunch.

Register by June 5 at the Greenwood
County Extension Office. 620.583.7455

Food Preservation Workshop

- Learn about home food preservation methods and the importance of food safety
- Pressure can vegetables
- Water bath can salsa and relish
- Dehydrate herbs
- Tips on making jams and jellies
- Hands-on workshop - - -
Come prepared to work!
Make & Take!

Food Preservation Workshop

With Karen Blakeslee, K-State Research and Extension Rapid Response Center Coordinator. Join us! Karen will show a variety of equipment and how they are used. She can answer your food preservation questions and help solve problems you may have experienced. See some new equipment that may save you time and money. Register by June 5th. Fee is due at registration. Class is limited to 20.

