

K-State Risk and Profit Conference is Aug 16 - 17 in Manhattan

Dr. John Newton, Chief Economist, U.S. Senate Committee Agriculture, Nutrition Forestry will be the keynote speaker for this year's Risk and Profit Conference. The conference offers two attendance options this year: in-person at the KSU Alumni Center in Manhattan August 16th and 17th, along with a virtual option August 22nd through August 26th.

A variety of break-out sessions will be available for attendees to choose from including:

- A Heterodox (Not Unorthodox) Perspective on the Unfolding Economic Environment
- Ukraine Update
- Ag Finance Situation
- Kansas Net Farm Income Projections for 2022/2023
- Key International Grain Market Factors in 2022/2023
- Kansas Land Values and Trends
- Lending Trends for Kansas Farms, 2013-2020
- Planning for the Future of the Farm
- Insights from the Meat Demand Monitor Dashboard
- Beef and Pork Marketing Margins and Their Implications
- Cow-Calf Herd Size: How Has the Industry Responded to Elevated Uncertainty?
- Drought Management for Cattle Producers: Forage Prices and the Role of Insurance
- Using Margin Protection Insurance to Manage High Input Costs in 2023: Considerations for Kansas Producers
- Pasture, Rangeland, and Forage Insurance and Conservation Reserve Program
- Spatial and Temporal Patterns of Returns to US Field Crop Production
- Fall Income Tax Management and Planning
- Assessing the Financial Condition and Accounts Receivable Risk Among US Farmer Cooperatives
- Building Strong Relationships...Producing Excellence -- A History of the Kansas Farm Management Association at Kansas State University
- Hiring H2A Workers

More specifics on registration information, trade show, guest speakers and schedule can be found at:

<https://www.agmanager.info/events/risk-and-profit-conference>